PARLIAMENT MOVES TO END COAL STRIKE IN OPENING SESSION

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The way to renewed negotiations in the British nation-wide coal strike was opened today by William Brace, labor member of parliament.

Brace suggested a new plan of settling the controversy in a speech shortly after the reassembling of Parliament today.

Brace's proposal was that the miners be given an increase of two shillings per day until January 1. Meantime, owners and miners would work out a permanent wage scale and the government, with representatives of the miners and owners, would decide on a profit-sharing plan.

"The opportunity to settle the strike must be accepted within a few days," Brace said. "Otherwise the miners will begin to suffer from starvation within a week and will remove every man from the mines and fight to the finish."

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The British parliament went directly to the coal strike problem when it convened for the fall session today.

Sir Robert Horne, president of the board of trade, put the case before parliament in a speech reviewing negotiations with miners' leaders on their wage demands.

Premier Lloyd George was not scheduled to speak but he was present ready to intervene in the argument. Labor members showed their hands. Labor leaders were to have opportunity to present their case when Horne had concluded.

The first cold weather of the winter struck London today, emphasizing the possibilities of suffering due to the strike. Lloyd George was said to have promised miners of London boroughs that he would propose a solution for unemployment at the first opportunity. The weather and the riots of yesterday in Whitehall and Downing street were expected to force the question to the front in connection with the coal strike.

Downing street today agreed the downing street riots were the work of east end hoodlums—not the unemployed men bent on a quiet demonstration. The looting of two jewelry shops in the strand and the baggage room of the military club showed the motives of the hoodlums, characterized as Lansbury's officer of the United Societies of Christian Endeavor, is expected to devote his address to subjects pertaining to C. E. work.

KILLING OF HAITIANS TOLD MARINE PROBERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Details of the killing of native Haitians on orders of an insane non-commissioned officer of the American marines was learned here today.

This incident caused General Barnett to make his charge of indiscriminate killings by the American forces occupying Haiti. Barnett will be the first witness before the board of naval inquiry which is to start an investigation Friday.

The two Haitians were Leonard Placide and Destine Jean. They were shot at Croix De Bouquets on the night of May 22, 1919. One had been arrested for "working magic" and the other for theft.

When the Haitians failed to fall at the first volley, the sergeant is charged with finishing them off with his revolver.

At the court martial it was brought out the sergeant was hopelessly insane and the two privates, it is understood, were acquitted as they acted on orders of a superior.

STRIKE MOBS STAGE RIOTS IN TWO WEBCAST CITIES.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The first strike disturbances in the coal region were reported today from Tondy and Pandy, mining centers in Wales.

Large bodies of miners gathered in both cities near midnight, singing "The Red Flag" as they marched about the city streets.

Shop windows were stoned but no serious damage resulted.

The mobs dispersed of their own accord.

The government today began use of publicity bureaus to combat statements issued by the miners through their own publicity department and that of the labor party.

Unofficially a report was spread that at the end of a fortnight a proposition may be put forth that will enable the miners' leaders to save their faces while the government will not have to yield much ground.

The riot yesterday, in which two were injured in Downing street and Whitehall, was forgotten today except for the hospital list and the damaged front of the foreign office.

The coal situation was the first thing to be considered when parliament reconvened today. Later in the day representatives of the transport union will meet the board of port union in Downing street. A clear statement of the attitude of that wing of the "triple alliance" may result from the session.

Mystery Witness Says Min- ing Man Shot 'Spanish' Woman June 2

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—That revenge for the alleged shooting of a woman friend, with whom he had quarreled and then shot through the shoulder, was the motive for the murder of Jacob C. Denton, wealthy mining man, was the substance of a signed statement in the possession of the district attorney's office here today.

The statement, made by an unknown witness, who claims to have witnessed the shooting of the mysterious "Spanish woman" in Denton's home on June 2 and the subsequent murder of Denton by friends of the woman, was not divulged by the district attorney's office.

It will be made public when the proper time arrives, it was said.

The alleged shooting of the woman followed a quarrel. Denton was said to have pulled his gun and fired one shot which penetrated the woman's shoulder. Denton was killed by friends of the woman, the statement is reported to have said.

Identity of the witness who gave the detailed information to the district attorney's office was shrouded in deep mystery.

Officers refused to reveal whether the witness was a man or a woman, but said their informant claimed not to have participated in the crime.

WOMEN'S CLOTHING CLUE IN DENTON SLAYING

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—That rapid developments may be expected in solving the Denton murder mystery was indicated today through intimations of the district attorney's office that the investigation is rapidly approaching a climax.

That purchases of women's apparel aggregating $600 were made in the name of Mrs. J. C. Denton, deceased wife of the murdered man, in a downtown department store on August 16 and 18, was learned by investigators today. Mrs. Denton died last March.

Secretary of Agriculture Charges Luxury Producers Favored Over Growers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Secretary of Agriculture Meredith today charged farmers are being denied needed credit by bankers in favor of luxury producers. He made the charge in a speech at the opening session of the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association. More than 3000 bankers from all sections of the United States heard Meredith.

Farmers of the country will lose $2,500,000,000 if forced to market their crops at present prices, Meredith warned.

"The only point at issue," he said, "is this: Shall the farmer whose primary interests are involved be afforded such credit by local banks as will enable him to market his crop in an orderly fashion?"

Meredith declared the average price of all crops on October 1 was 14 per cent lower than the same day, 1919.

"In the spring of 1920, when they were planning their operation for the present season, the farmers were confronted with a very difficult situation," he said.

"There was a shortage of farm labor estimated at 33 per cent. The cost of everything the farmers had to buy was exceedingly high and there was uncertainty as to the future price of farm products. All these things added to the hazard of the undertaking, but the farmers did not hesitate. They realized the responsibilities resting upon them to meet the future food requirements of the nation, and, in spite of difficulties, they succeeded in producing one of the largest crops in history."

High prices ruled while farmers were planting and cultivating the bumper crops they were asked to produce, Meredith recalled.

"The farmers of the United States this year have produced 3,216,192,000 bushels of corn," he said. "At present prices they would receive for their crop approximately one-half billion dollars less than it would bring on the basis of prices prevailing on October 1, 1919. The cotton crop this year totals 13,000,000 bales. At existing prices it would lack more than one-third of a billion dollars, bringing as much as it would have brought a year ago."

"Cottonseed which sold a year ago for $60 a ton, on September 1 sold for $20 a ton. The wool clip this year aggregated 259,307,000 pounds. At prices prevailing in September last it would have brought $135,000,000, but this year, at current prices, it would bring only $73,000,000."

"Apparently well-founded complaints have reached the agricultural department from farmers who have been denied credit for essential productive purposes while the producers of expensive luxuries and the dealers in them have been accommodated. I do not intend to imply that these bankers have maliciously chosen to handicap agriculture by the refusal of credit which they might have extended, but rather that they yielded to the temptation of a larger immediate income from loans for less fundamental purposes. It is more than probable the bankers who followed a short-sighted policy will in the long run be the losers."

CLAIMS CLOTHIERS WILL SELL AT COST

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Retail clothiers throughout the country have determined to sell at cost, according to Andreas Burkhardt, president of the National Association of Retail Clothiers.

"Continual increases in costs during recent years have brought consumers to a state where they no longer can be appealed to by sheer reason," Burkhardt declared in explaining manufacturers and retailers "have determined to forget their usual profits."

Goal of 1000 Will Be Ob- tained by End of Week, Is Prediction

One hundred and fifty-three new members were added to the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce through the membership drive this morning, according to reports filed by the various teams at the joint C. of C. Rotary Club luncheon at noon at James'.

This, it was agreed, was a most propitious start for the canvass, and there is every indication that the goal of 1000 members for the Chamber will have been reached by the last of the week. Approximately 350 members remain to be obtained.

The reports of the teams today showed that approximately 90 per cent of those called upon had joined the Chamber, and it was believed this ratio would be carried out during the remainder of the drive.

The team workers met again on Thursday for a complimentary noon luncheon at James', and by that time it is anticipated a hundred or more additional new members will have been obtained.

Beside many individuals, the various organizations of the city are taking out memberships in the Chamber and several of the larger business, commercial, financial and industrial firms are planning to take out several memberships.

Among the organizations which have already joined are the Auto Club of Orange County, Santa Ana Insurance Club, Rotary Club, Auto mobile Trades' Association, Santa Ana Musical Association and Ministerial Association.

A feature of today's luncheon was the address of Robert Sprout, controller of the University of California and former president of the Berkeley Rotary Club, who spoke forcibly in behalf of "Yes" votes for Amendment No. 12 on the November ballot, and who was roundly applauded the report by teams today, was as follows:

Show Bible In Films

Scene from the picturization of the Holy Bible to be shown at the Temple Theater for four nights and matinees, commencing Thursday.

To every one, layman, or clergyman, who has longed to see visualized the characters he has met through the printed pages of the Holy Bible, the news that the Book is being filmed for motion picture showing will come as a welcome surprise. This project has been attempted before—"strikes" of the Bible, stories here and there, picked at random, have been pictured; but never before has such a gigantic undertaking been commenced, with the intention of filming, in sequence, the continuous story of the Bible, with accurate attention to detail and absorbing drama.

Those of you who have studied the Bible in church, school or home will be enabled to fulfill a long-felt desire to see these people you have grown to love, their life-stories with their beautiful lessons of service will pass as in review on the screen before you, replete with thrills of danger, will hold you spellbound with their suspense and will surprise you in the detail of accuracy and verity shown in the production. This series of Biblical pictures will prove a mine of educational possibilities for your children; their Sunday-school lessons will be made easy for them, for the eye is estimated as being 80 per cent quicker of conception than the ear and pictures carry a far more poignant message than the spoken word. They register instantly and remain in mental impressions long afterward.

MAN SAYS SUIT FILED BY WIFE 'MERE PLOT'

A complaint asking a decree of separate maintenance from Charles Lippman, of Fullerton, has been filed by Ida Lippman, his wife, who is at present living in Los Angeles with her child.

Mrs. Lippman charges extreme cruelty during the time she and her husband were living together in Fullerton, and non-support as well. She charges that her husband said she was an unfit person to take care of their child, and several times started to take the child to the home of his sister, and treated her brutally when she tried to prevent him. She asks $25 per week and custody of the child.

The case was transferred here from the Superior court of Los Angeles county. Lippman in a cross complaint alleges that his wife's suit is a mere plot to enable her to live away from him on his money, and states that he at no time treated her cruelly. David E. Fulwider, of Los Angeles, is attorney for the plaintiff. Marks & Launer are representing the defendant.

HARDING MAKES REPLY TO NOTE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The White House today was considering a reply to Senator Harding's explanation of his reported statement that spokesmen of France had come to him and asked America to lead the way in forming a new association of nations.

Harding, in a letter in answer to President Wilson, declared what he intended to convey was "that there had come to me those who spoke a sentiment which they represented to be very manifest among the French people."

The White House comments further, it probably will emphasize its contention France and other league members are prevented from forming a new association of nations by provisions of the present league.

Senator Harding's letter follows: "My dear Mr. President: I have before me a press copy of your letter to me of this date though I am not in receipt of the original copy. I am glad to make prompt reply."

"It is very gratifying that you hesitate to draw inferences without my assurance that I am correctly quoted. The quotation as reported in your letter is not exact. The notes of the stenographer reporting my remarks quote me as saying, 'France has sent her spokesmen to me informally, asking America its new realization of the situation to lead the way for an association of nations.' I am sure that my words could not be construed to say that the French government has sent anybody to me."

"The thought was trying to convey was that there had come to me those who spoke a sentiment which they represented to be very manifest among the French people, but nothing could suggest the French government having violated the proprieties of international relations. Official France would never seek to go over your high office as our Chief Executive to appeal to the American people or any portion thereof."

"I can see no impropriety in private citizens of France, or of America, expressing to me their understanding of sentiments in that friendly republic."

"It is not important enough to discuss, perhaps, but I very respectfully urge that an informal expression is rather more than that to a private citizen. I hold a place on the foreign relations committee of the United States Senate, which is charged with certain constitutional authority in dealing with foreign relations, and I am necessarily conscious that I am a nominee of the Republican party for President of our republic. In the combination of these two positions it ought not to be unseemly that some very devoted friends of a new and better relationship among nations, who matter when they come should wish to advise me relating to aspirations to co-operate with our own republic in attaining that purpose."

"Let me assure you again of the observance of all the proprieties, and again assure that the French government has maintained that great respect for your position to which I myself subscribe."

"With great respect, I am, 'Very truly, 'WARREN G. HARDING.'"

MARY'S DIVORCE CASE IS AGAIN POSTPONED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—News of a second postponement, this time indefinite, of the case brought by the attorney general of the state of Nevada to dissolve her decree of divorce from her former husband, Owen Moore, came to Mary Pickford at her home in Hollywood. There, as Mrs. Doug. Fairbanks, the motion picture favorite, refused to be hurried by court actions and legal complications.

The trial was to have been heard November 6, but Mrs. Fairbanks' attorney obtained a postponement, and the new date has not been announced.

Argument will be on a motion to quash the action brought by the attorney general to have the divorce invalidated. In the event the motion is granted the case will end, unless an appeal is taken. If the motion is denied the action will go regularly to trial.

FEDERAL BOOZE QUIZ REOPENS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—With the federal grand jury scheduled to meet this afternoon to resume its investigation of prohibition enforcement, interest in the so-called "liquor scandal" quickened here today.

Announcement was made today that Mrs. Glad Kimball Warburton, who was officially removed yesterday as secretary to the prohibition enforcement officer, has retained Attorney Maxwell McNutt to make a legal fight for the retention of her position.

Further investigation of the peculiar circumstances of the death of Loris A. Handley, former prohibition director, will be made. United States Attorney Frank M. Silva announced, after going over stenographic notes taken during a four-hour quiz of Emil De Valle, chauffeur of the car in which Handley was riding when he was killed.

Silva reiterated, however, that De Valle's account yesterday was the same as the story of the death of Handley told at the inquest.

BROLASKI OUSTED FROM REDONDO OFFICE

REDONDO BEACH, Cal., Oct. 19.—Harry Brolaski, former mayor of this city, now under indictment in San Francisco, in connection with the federal probe into an alleged "whiskey ring," was ousted from membership on the city board of trustees at one minute after midnight this morning.

The action of the board came immediately after the expiration of the ninety-day non-attendance limit allowed members of the board. The ouster resolution was unanimously passed as the big town clock finished booming the midnight hour.

AMERICANS ATTEND BULL FIGHT, OPENING

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 19.—Twenty-five thousand persons, including several hundred American trade excursionists, witnessed a bull fight here in the opening of an ambitious season. Two toreros killed six bulls during the fight, which lasted an hour and a quarter. Both won enthusiastic applause by dispatching five bulls without a miss, although one torero narrowly escaped injury when he slipped and fell.

The crowd celebrated the event by showering confetti over the arena. Officials who made the exhibition possible received hearty applause.

The merry-makers were aided by a modification of Provisional President De la Huerta's recent order making Mexico City dry from Saturday night to Monday morning. Relaxation of the restrictions came after nearly 2000 owners of cafes had gone before the courts and asked for a writ of supersedeas which, had it been granted, would have served as an injunction against official interference with night business. Instead of granting writs, the judges designated scores of places in which drinks might be served.

WOMAN AIDS SURGEON AS MERE MAN FAINTS

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Ambulance Surgeon Calcechio of Mary Immaculate Hospital, Jamaica, responding to a call yesterday afternoon, found 8-year-old Franklin Boyse of South Ozone Park, Queens, bleeding to death from a ruptured artery in the back of his head. The child had been struck by an automobile while on his way home from school. He was taken into a drug store in South Ozone Park, in front of which the accident occurred.

Dr. Calcechio found he needed assistance to adjust an artery clamp to stop the flow of blood. A man in the drug store volunteered to aid, but fainted. A woman took his place and also fainted.

Just then Mrs. B. C. Peikotz, principal of Public School No. 96, came in. She offered assistance.

"I'm afraid you'll faint, too," said the ambulance surgeon.

"I won't if you don't," she answered.

She acted as nurse to the operator, and in a few seconds the boy was out of danger.

IRISH QUESTION BIG PARLIAMENT PROBLEM

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Parliament assembled today facing two of the most serious questions ever laid before it—Ireland and the coal strike.

The government also faced criticism because of the growing unemployment problem and the increasing cost of living.

The Irish question is likely to bring about one of the fiercest fights ever developed in parliament. The absence of leadership and the many schemes offered for settlement made the problem more difficult.

The stubborn refusal of the Sinn Feiners to consider anything but absolute independence was another difficulty.

DEMOCRATIC COLUMN

The Orange County Democratic Central Committee Edits this Column and is Responsible for All Matter Published in It.

ANOTHER WILSON BLUNDER?

Asserting that "there can be no panic," and that "the banking situation is sound beyond all peradventure," because of the Federal Reserve banks, the San Francisco Chronicle forgets to say that the Federal Reserve banks were created and put in motion by the new banking law enacted by a Democratic Congress and approved by the Democratic President, Woodrow Wilson. Why the hesitancy to lay upon Wilson's shoulders the blame for a condition under which "there can be no panic" because "the banking situation is sound beyond all peradventure?"

Let us remember, also, that Republican financiers and bankers and newspapers yelled the tops of their heads off in an endeavor to defeat that Democratic banking law. "There can be no panic." There you are! "Another Wilson blunder."

MONROE DOCTRINE AND ARTICLE X

Those now inveighing against an interest in affairs outside of America charge experimentation, when we have as historical precedent the Monroe Doctrine, which is the very essence of the Versailles Covenant.

Skeptics viewed Monroe's mandate with alarm, predicting recurrent wars in defense of Central and South American States, whose guardians they alleged we need not be. And yet not a shot has been fired in almost one hundred years in preserving sovereign rights on this hemisphere.—Gov. James M. Cox.

Why do women want the League of Nations? Because it saves the mothers of the future from sacrificing their sons to war. Because it is the only practical working plan to replace Conflict, Bloodshed and Sorrow by Peace and Good-will.—Mrs. George Bass.

SECOND TEAM MEN MEET MANUAL ARTS

Second string football men from Manual Arts high school in Los Angeles are scheduled to clash with the local second team players on the Poly gridiron tomorrow afternoon.

The Poly seconds have been "going good" and the Manual Arts seconds usually slumped up to the average high school first team in weight and speed. With such material a lively fracas is promised.

Junior college veterans are to meet Chaffee Union junior collegians on the local gridiron Thursday, according to present plans. The local junior college crew has some promising material and has already registered a signal victory over Anaheim high school.

Chaffee is said to have a strong aggregation this year so the former high school stars may have their hands full managing the up-country team in Thursday's conflict.

No game has been definitely scheduled for the first team yet this week but negotiations are under way to obtain a team to meet the local high school team, probably on the Poly gridiron on either Friday or Saturday afternoon, according to announcement at the high school today.

STATE PLANNING NEW WAR ON BOOTLEGGERS

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 19.—Raids, fines and imprisonments have failed to stop bootlegging in the state of Washington.

Prohibition enforcement officials have decided to try to put the fear of death into the drinking public, hoping that method of attack may produce better results.

Propaganda bulletins, it has been decided, will be issued, setting forth the precise nature of the symptoms with descriptions of the symptoms induced by the various chemicals in moonshine whiskey.

The Washington state health department will assist in the campaign. It has announced to the public that unless drinkers cut down their consumption of home-made liquor, deaths in the next few years, due to moonshine whiskey, will exceed the American death roll in the world war.

McLERAN IN DENIAL OF PALMER CHARGES

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Ralph McLeran, former acting mayor of San Francisco, from whom Attorney General Palmer yesterday demanded a retraction of statements alleged to have been made about the famous forty-one barrels of whiskey alleged to have been consumed during the Democratic convention in San Francisco, today said he had not yet received Palmer's telegram.

Discussing the affair on the basis of press reports, however, McLeran denied that he had ever said that Palmer had full knowledge of the liquor from a bonded warehouse.

He said when he received Palmer's telegram he "probably would reply."

IRISH QUESTION BIG PARLIAMENT PROBLEM

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Parliament assembled today facing two of the most serious questions ever laid before it—Ireland and the coal strike.

The government also faced criticism because of the growing unemployment problem and the increasing cost of living.

The Irish question is likely to bring about one of the fiercest fights ever developed in parliament. The absence of leadership and the many schemes offered for settlement made the problem more difficult.

The stubborn refusal of the Sinn Feiners to consider anything but absolute independence was another difficulty.

DEMANDS CONVICTION
IN LYNCHING TRIAL

SPRINGFIELD, Ga., Oct. 19.—Results of mob activity were pictured to the Effingham county grand jury
by Judge Lovett in instructions which virtually demanded that some one be indicted for the lynching
several months ago of Phillip Gathers, a negro, lynched in connection with the killing of Anza Jaudon, a girl. "Officers of the law, representing the sovereignty of the state, flee from the mob," Judge Lovett said. "What a pitiable spectacle. The State created by the people, in fight pursued by its own creators. Lawlessness reigns supreme: the security of the law becomes a by-word to be scoffed at, constitutional guarantees are by force made empty things."

out being discovered. The watch was missing about 10:30 p. m., tion showed that the burglars had entered by the rear door. So far as is known nothing else is missing.

HARDING LANDSLIDE

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 19.—"It's a landslide for Harding and Coolidge,"
the Republican ticket will carry every state north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi and every western state, with the possible exception of Montana," declared Gov. Lowden of Illinois, who arrived here to join the great political spectacle which began a speechmaking tour of Eastern Kentucky today.

Lowden said he had been campaigning as far west as Denver and as far north as Duluth and he never saw such desire among the people for a change.

REPORT GIVES
CAL. CROP DATA

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Optimistic comment on corn, oats, and hops and somewhat discouraging
remarks on other field crops feature
the October crop report for California, compiled by government agricultural statisticians and the state department of agriculture.

September weather was favorable
for the growth of corn. The condition of this crop is 90 per cent of normal, or seven points better than a year ago. The report forecasts a total production in California of 3, 240,000 bushels.

The average yield per acre of oats
has been better than was expected, asserts the report, and the state's production has been a little more than 5,000,000 bushels.

California hop growers have had a good year. The average yield per acre has been over 100 pounds more than last year. The state produces over fifty per cent of all that is grown in the United States.

The barley yield has been rather disappointing. The quality is only $4 per cent, compared with 95 last year.

The condition of Irish potatoes remains the same—83 per cent of normal, while the sweet potato crop fell a point from last month.

The condition of the rice crop at harvest time is down two points
from what it was reported a month ago. On the whole, assuming that the entire acreage sown will be harvested, the forecast for the state's crop would be 9,387,900 bushels, providing weather conditions remain favorable for harvesting and threshing.

While the pasture condition always is low this season, it is two points better than at this time last year, and, although ranges are not at all good, still there is no complaint of live stock suffering for need of feed.

A further decline of two points in the condition of cotton was reported as of September 25. Present conditions are due largely to late planting, adverse conditions up to the last of June, and inexperience of growers in newly planted districts. The condition is only 78 per cent of normal, compared to 95 last year.

From the standpoint of production
as well as market conditions, the present year, says the report, has not been a successful one for the bean grower. High temperatures in July and absence of fogs in the coast counties played havoc with all varieties of beans on unirrigated lands.

While little change has been noted in the condition of sugar beets, increased acreage and better condition promise a material increase in sugar production for the state this
year.

Concerning fruit crops the report states as a whole they improved
some in 1919 undoubtedly weaker to midsummer, but at harvest time
it became apparent that production was not going to be as great as had been expected from the improvement noted in growing conditions.

"The long and protracted drought with the heavy crop of fruit particularly in 1919 undoubtedly weakened
the vitality of many trees, brought about spotted conditions, and caused a slump in expected yields," says the report. "Weather conditions during September were on the whole satisfactory, although below normal temperatures the first half of the month held up the rapid drying of the fruit and raisins. The latter part of the month higher temperatures
hastened drying and the growers generally came through in pretty good shape. A few scattered showers followed by clearing weather caused no material damage."

AT HOUSING PROBLEM

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The housing problem is as acute here as in the United States. So scarce are dwellings that people are willing almost to risk their lives that they may keep a roof over their heads. This was proved in the police court at Bishop-Auckland, near Durham, today.

The husband of a woman charged with an order of ejectment against a man who, with his family of six, occupied a house on the extreme edge of a precipice overlooking the River Wear. It was stated in court that the brink of the precipice has been sliding and slipping away for months.
Not long ago a neighboring house crashed over the cliffs, the occupants having a very narrow escape.

Inspectors had been observing the house on the cliff's edge for some time, but because of the lack of dwellings the council had not sought to eject its occupants. Now there is real danger that the house will slip from its lofty perch at any minute.
The tenant pleaded that he and his family be permitted to remain.

"We aren't afraid," said he. "It is our home, and if we are turned out, where will we find another?
Please remember that winter is coming on and I fear I shall not be able to find a shelter for my children."
"It is almost suicidal to remain
where you are," said the court. "We will keep you in the workhouse until you can find a dwelling."

MAN ENTERS HOUSE,
DEMANDS MEAL COOKED

Officers searched today afternoon for a man who late yesterday afternoon surprised Mrs. E. S. Gilbert in her home by coming into the house
through the back door and demanding that she prepare him something to eat.

He emphasized his demand by the use of profane language. He gave something to eat and sat
by and waited while Mrs. Gilbert prepared coffee for him, it is said.
As soon as the man had eaten and left the house Mrs. Gilbert sent her little daughter down town to inform Mr. Gilbert.

The man is believed to have been one who was released from the county jail yesterday, after having served a term for vagrancy. It is understood he said after leaving jail that he did not intend to leave the county until after the first of the coming year and that the county would have to provide him his meals.

BIG FINANCING
FIRM LAUNCHED

Articles of incorporation of the Continental Financing corporation, of Anaheim, were to be filed with the county clerk today, according to word reaching here from Anaheim.

The authorized capitalization is placed at $500,000.
The handling of automobile paper
will be the principal activity with which the corporation will concern itself, it was stated.

The officers are:
William A. Dolan, president of the Anaheim National Bank, president;
A. B. McCord, cashier of the Anaheim
National Bank, vice president; Robert Vincent, Anaheim manager for the
A. A. Peterson corporation, treasurer and manager; H. G. Ames, city attorney of Anaheim, attorney; E. P.
Lynch, also connected with the A. A.
Peterson corporation, secretary and cashier.

The new corporation it is stated will be the second largest financial institution in Orange county. It does not propose to compete with established banks and will have no deposits. However, it proposes to supplement the banks and will confine its major activities to handling automobile paper.

The articles of incorporation will permit the concern also to deal in real estate and to erect a building suitable for its needs. In addition, it will be permitted to assist in the erection of bungalows. Temporary offices will be opened in the Old Fellows' building at Anaheim.

FARMERS WILL STUDY
COLLEGE'S FINANCES

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 19.—The first detailed study by farmers of the funds expended and those needed by the College of Agriculture
will be undertaken by representatives of the twenty-five farmers' organizations which make up the Agricultural Legislative Committee.
Each department will be reviewed by farmers delegated by the organizations, most interested in the work of that department.

This is an extension of the plan previously adopted to study the expenditures and needs of the State Department of Agriculture, the State Board of Agriculture and other agencies expending funds for agriculture.

"More than a million dollars are being spent in the state each year
by various departments for agricultural purposes," said C. C. Teague of Santa Paula, chairman of the committee, "and although we believe this is being well spent, we feel that the farmers should know more concerning what is being done
in their behalf."

The Agricultural Legislative Committee will take no stand on the alien land law appearing on the November ballot.

LEADERS PREDICTING
NEW SENATE LINEUP

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Party lines, worn and frayed from primary factional tugging, are nearing the parting point in nearly a dozen midwest states, political leaders here admitted today.

With the make-up of the next senate as nearly as important as a presidential victory, Senator Harry
A. New, chairman of the Republican National Speakers' Bureau and Senator T. J. Walsh, of the Democratic Speakers' Bureau, agreed that the outcome of the senatorial contest will determine the complexion of the next senate. Republican and Democratic leaders declared the "split"
in the senatorial scraps would not influence the presidential vote.

Senator Walsh predicted today that the Democrats would have a majority of five in the senate.
Senator New expected to add Colorado, Idaho, California, Kentucky, Arizona, Nevada and Maryland to the existing Republican majority.

Ralph Chambers, is in military service, has obtained a decree of divorce on the ground of desertion and non-support. Chambers did not appear to answer the suit. Judge Williams take care of Chambers' interests. In addition to the divorce, Mrs. Chambers was granted $25 per month alimony, and the custody of their child.

Mrs. Chambers was represented by

NEW CLUES FOLLOWED

Deputies from the office of Sheriff C. E. Jackson, believing they had a hot clue, today searched for several men said to have been closely connected with the murder of Ignacio Guerro at Westminster on September 12.

pending investigations which apparently cleared them.

JUDGMENT EXECUTION

The Bauer-Schweitzer Hop and Malt company has obtained execution of judgment against two of the directors of the Anaheim Products com-

ceived today from the sheriff of Kern

W. F. Laird and J. B. McFarland to satisfy a judgment of $5,519.50
against Laird and $2440 against Mc-Farland, rendered here some time ago by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams. The judgment also calls for interest at 7 per cent on these, and for court costs, and sheriff's costs.

SHORTTRIDGE SPEAKS
AT SISTER'S HOME

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—Samuel Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States senator, and Gov.
Stephens will be the principal speakers at an outdoor Republican rally to be held at the home of Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, sister of the candidate, here this afternoon.

Shortridge's campaign in Southern California has stressed the tariff issue, the Republican candidate having pledged himself to work for an adequate tariff for citrus products.
Relief for farmers' organization in the form of extension of farm credits, is also being promised by Shortridge.

"I have emphasized the great need for tariff legislation which will foster California industries and protect farmers, growers and labor," he said, discussing the campaign today.

GOOD EVENING.

There are only perfect skies
When the perfect joy of heart
Is in mutual helping flies
To fulfill his destined part.

JOIN THE C. OF C.

When any prospective new resident desires information about Santa Ana and vicinity, the Chamber of Commerce is on the job to help locate that man in this locality.

When any movement is proposed which will make Santa Ana a larger city or a better city in which to live,
the Chamber of Commerce is called upon to put forth its best efforts to bring about the consummation of that movement.

The Chamber of Commerce, as has well been said, is an organization that belongs to the citizens who believe in themselves and their town
—the clearing house for civic enterprise. It provides the one civic betterment association which every live community has.

Hail then, to Chamber of Commerce week in Santa Ana! Everyone knows what the local Chamber of Commerce is doing for the benefit of Santa Ana and every resident thereof, and everyone should do his or her part to make the membership drive this week an overwhelming success.

If you are already a member, pay yourself to the Greater Santa Ana movement.

If you are not yet a member, but are living in Santa Ana, join that great army of civic workers in the Chamber of Commerce and help to

CREDIT WHERE DUE

We hear how Henry Ford has reduced prices on his automobiles, how the Franklin Automobile company has reduced prices, how silk has come down, how rubber has come down, how hogs have dropped and how a hundred and one other things have dropped or are going to drop
and they all claim, and may be entitled to a great deal of glory for helping reduce the cost of living.

One industry which has been sawing wood, all the time and saving nothing is insurance. This industry has not increased rates over the pre-war figure. During the war for a short time a ten per cent increase was levied to cover extraordinary expenses. This was done away with immediately after the war and insurance has remained on a pre-war
basis, although expenses, taxes,
wages, rents and everything connected with the business are still at war figures or have been increased from month to month.

A man's good points are usually brought to light after he is dead. In the case of insurance it should get a little credit now while it is alive and its record should be borne in mind when firms like Ford are getting pages of publicity for reducing the price of their products after taking the war profit for years.

SUGAR BEET GROWERS' CHANCE

One of the effects of the war has been to bring about a much wider and more general recognition of the importance of sugar as an essential food and of the national economic value of the industry. Appreciation of these facts is shown by the eagerness
with which those countries possessing soils and climate adapted to the production of sugar are turning to the encouragement of this industry. The war has given the final blow to the free trade theory, so far as sugar is concerned. Great Britain, for years the sole remaining prominent adherent of this policy, has now definitely abandoned it for a preferential tariff favoring the expansion of sugar production within the Empire.

Right here in the west we have a chance to develop the best sugar
industry to enormous proportions, thus building up our farm lands and cattle industry which go hand in hand with the beet sugar industry.
Will we take advantage of the opportunity which is knocking at our doors?

CHILD HYGIENE

A convention of the utmost importance to the people of this country met in St. Louis, Mo., October 9th, for a three day session. It was the eleventh annual convention of the American Child Hygiene Association, and at its meetings reports

were made of past labors and plans laid for future work in promoting the health of the children of this nation. Specialists in child welfare from all over the country attend these meetings. Their findings and activities are of immediate concern
to all those believing in a better status for children.

Last year was the best year yet in saving of infant life, according to the president of the association, an average of 87 deaths to 1,000 births
being noted, while not very many years ago an average of 150 deaths was usual.

Herbert Hoover's experience in child relief in Belgium and France
has made him at once an authority
and an enthusiast on this subject,
and he believes that "twenty years
of systematic grappling with the whole child situation in the United States would advance our public health, our economic efficiency and our normal character, three generations in one."

Wide-spread co-operation will not be difficult to secure for work so fraught with kindness and promise.

SOUVENIRS RETURNED

Probably nothing will bring their disgrace home more keenly to the ball players involved in the bribery scandal, than the return to them of autographed balls, photographs, bats
and other souvenirs which they had given to minor associations, clubs
and individual boys.

No man is so great that he does not enjoy being a hero. No man is ever so poised that the awe-struck adoration in the eyes of his younger worshippers does not stir him to the core. He may be willing to hoodwink his contemporaries on the ground that they are old enough to be on their guard, but it takes a rotten heart to cheat a child.

Fines will be imposed upon the dishonest players. They will be debarred from league ball forever. The stigma will follow them all the days of their lives, and it should. But it is doubtful if anything will have quite the sting of those souvenirs returned by young worshippers who have found their idols have feet of clay.

It is heartening to see this rejection of crooked sport by young America.

Ruth and Thor

Stockton Record
Having scored 54 home runs, Babe
Ruth can now take his proper place among the gods renowned in legend
for their prowess.

He belongs in fact, to the class of the great god Thor who performs wonders with the hammer he always carried. It is related of him that once with a mighty swing he hurled the hammer over a mountain, cracked open the mountain and a new valley was formed.

There is no desire here to detract from Thor's record by comparison with Babe Ruth's, but, then, in fairness to the Babe, it should be pointed out that there is no evidence that Thor actually did what is claimed for him. There is even some question as to what mountain it was that he cracked so wide open with his hammer.

On the other hand, every one of Babe Ruth's more than 50 home runs is authenticated by hundreds of thousands of witnesses who saw these miracles performed with their own eyes.

Moreover, Babe Ruth had no supernatural help, but performed
these wonders single-handed, so to speak, unlike Thor, who, being a god, had certain occult advantages when he threw his hammer with such terrific effect.

Assuredly, Babe's place is among the gods and if the pantheon is already filled, let Thor get up and give his seat to one whose wondrous achievements are authenticated and guaranteed.

Point of View

San Bernardino Sun
Sam Gompers calls "Coolidge a
"police batter." By which we presume Mr. Gompers means to express his disapproval of the way in which Governor Coolidge settled the Boston policemen's strike. But more than one hundred million people remember it was a rubber stamp function which called for the Bay
State governor one of the patriotic epigrams of the time, when he said:
"There is no right to strike against the public safety of anybody, anywhere, at any time."
That sentiment may move Mr.
Gompers to call the author of it a "police batter," but it will move the American people to elect him to the second highest office in the land
this year, and possibly hold higher honors for him later on.

Senator Harding's recent speeches
on labor and agriculture are impressive and leave the reader convinced that the candidate is earnest and sincere in his desire, from the position of great influence to which he is likely soon to be elevated, to help his fellow man to help himself.—Alameda Times-Star.

Harding being conservative and free from radicalism will inspire confidence in all classes, and capital will not be afraid to invest in large enterprises and business will find a solid foundation.—Winters Express.

We have been under a one-man government for a "single-track"
mind has dominated the situation.
Heads of departments have not dared to assume responsibility. Cabinet members have existed merely to record the imperial will. Until the people at the polls overthrew
the Democratic congress, it had functioned as a rubber stamp function in the hand of a dictator. We agree with Senator Harding that the country has had quite enough
of this sort of thing.—Long Beach

Faith Is Justified

Tacoma Ledger

Slowly but surely, the price of Liberty Bonds continues to rise. The most notable thing about the situation is that this price increase persists in the face of a falling market for most other securities, including those of corporations of known strength and sustained prosperity.

When the price of Government securities was at a low ebb and many industrial stocks were rising and paying high rates of interest, many people sold their Liberty bonds to buy the industrial stocks. Today the latter sell for less in the financial centers than the former.

The present situation is a pleasing commentary on the stability of the nation which has weathered the storms of war and reconstruction. It is a good lesson, too, on patience and conservatism in investment, and a fair illustration of the fact that the great underlying principles of business are neither wiped out nor rendered ineffective by any temporary disturbance, even that of war.

Those who labored to sell Liberty bonds to their fellow citizens will rejoice at the vindication of their faith and their efforts. The bonds did their full share toward winning the war. Nobody can doubt that. And now they are proving an increasingly good investment for those wise enough to hold them.

Independent Public Servants

New York Times

Too much of the choicest American energy and talent goes into business and is diverted from political life. This is inevitable, since the financial rewards of business are so much greater. Thomas B. Reed had to give up a brilliant career to make a long-neglected provision for his family. Senator Hoar used to live in a Washington boarding house, as plenty of members of congress do now.
Many men after displaying admirable administrative or legislative faculties at Washington,
go into the service of corporations or capitalize their temporary distinction by practicing law. In the several states the case is the same or worse.

There is a considerable class of well-to-do young men who feel their responsibilities to the community, and serve it to the best of their power, mostly in private station. They devote themselves to charities, philanthropies, social welfare, sometimes to literature and science.

The example of Theodore Roosevelt showed the possibilities of public service and public life
that are within the reach of every young man of independent means. Of course, Mr. Roosevelt had a rare genius for politics; but it is among the many useful corollaries of his success
that many young men of fortune
or in modestly comfortable circumstances have caught from him the taste for political life.
They have fared according to their luck, or their adaptation or want of adaptation to the political condition of their states; but however they have used their opportunities, the entrance of men of their kind into public life is welcome and a good sign.

Worth While Verses

FORGET YOURSELF

Forget yourself and be a man,
And do for country all ye can;
In time of need and deep distress;
Stand up and work and ne'er confess
You are a laggard in the van.
Throw out your line the world to span,
The good for all to be your plan;
With heart and mind of nobleness.
Forget yourself.

Now come and join the caravan,
With arms of brawn and face of tan,
And all together onward press,
And leave to God to judge and bless Alike each true American.
Forget yourself.

TODAY'S TALK

By George Matthew Adams

IF YOU CAN SEE AHEAD

There are many things each day that savor of humdrum. Monotony kills unless there is something behind to drive one through it.
If there is meaning to the thing you do—if there is an ideal hanging in the happy chamber of your heart—if you know that what you do leads to something of great interest and import, then you are able to endure—to face drudgery and walk along with it until you see your rising sun just a little way ahead.

Everything we do has a relation to some larger unit of accomplishment.

And the sum total of things for which we strive.
The significant life is the one able to understand that the rough spots and ways are necessary and essential. For by acknowledging their essential worth, there is acquired a running purpose which adds control to one's efforts and leads one on.

Hardship gives zest and color to work and makes a man glad that there are so many things worth fighting for.

Where there is a definite end always kept in view, there is created a continuity which makes all things look good.

Much of the power of the great man or artist is suppressed. There is feeling just the same—but its expression is brought about through perception alone. For very lack of utterance, some men and women are great.
Even as the few lines of the master tell volumes of what he omitted.

If you have schooled yourself to look ahead, you have learned the values back of the big job that enfolds before a big world as you leave the little irritations and bitter disappointments behind.

When one begins to get results, he is able to step from peak to peak!

Arguments Are Presented Here On Proposed State Legislation

Statements for or against any of the amendments or initiative or referendum measures will be noted on at the November election will be pub-

FOR THE HERITAGE LEFT US BY THE PIONEERS; FOR YOUR CHILDREN'S AND THEIR CHILDREN'S SAKE—SAVE CALIFORNIA FROM ALIEN GRASP

By JOHN S. CHAMBERS,
(State Controller). Chairman, Executive Committee, Japanese Exclusion League of California.

Twenty separate measures are to be passed upon by the electors of California on November 2d next,
twelve being proposed amendments to the Constitution, five referendum acts and three initiative proposals.

THE ALIEN LAND MEASURE BELONGS TO THE LAST CLASS, AND WILL BE NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT.

Simply put, its purpose is to strengthen the existing State law
that prohibits the ownership of land
in California by aliens not eligible to citizenship, by also forbidding the leasing of land to such people; and further, to put a stop to evasions of our land laws through the fraudulent use by elder aliens of the names of children born here of foreign parentage and therefore citizens;
and, also to prohibit the illegal manipulation of our laws governing land corporations, such as the use of the names of citizens as dummy directors of companies financed and controlled by aliens. In addition, provision is made for the escheat to the State of land illegally held, as defined in this amendment; and punishment is provided where conspiracy can be proved against two or more people to evade the provision of the law.

All rights guaranteed to aliens
under treaties remain unimpaired.
There is nothing in the proposed initiative amendment that is contrary to law, contrary to the Constitution of the State of California, contrary to the Constitution of the government of the United States or contrary to any treaty existing with any nation. The amendment was drafted and redrafted, and then submitted to various public associations and attorneys before finally adopted.

The Issues and the Remedies.
The issue is not political at all in a partisan sense. In the broadest sense, all things affecting the welfare of the people may be considered political. The present issue is,
who shall have the economic control of California—the white people or the Japanese? Agriculture is the basic industry of all industries, and in California it is pre-eminent, so leading all others in value of production by $500,000,000 annually. Shall the Japanese control this output and reap the profits, or the white people?
Shall the Japanese dominate, or the white people? One means, eventually, a brown man's California, the other a white man's. This is the issue—Industrial, social and broadly political. ON WHICH SIDE WILL PATRIOTISM ALIGN ITSELF?

Economic control means, in time,
as population grows, political control—that is, control of government.
In Hawaii today the Japanese number 110,000 out of a total conglom-erate population of 263,000! Do we want such a condition to be duplicated in California? Under Japan's dual citizenship law, the first allegiance of a Japanese, whether a citizen of another country or not, is to Japan! Need more be said?

The alien land bill now before the people of this State is the first step to prevent the loss of economic control. Congress must put through the second step, by closing the door to the unassimilable immigrant;
and the people the third step by amending the Constitution of the United States to the effect that no child born in this country or parents ineligible to citizenship shall be eligible to citizenship.

Farm Labor Not Affected.
The alien land measure will deprive no Japanese now in California
of land or other property now owned by him. The bill looks to the future. No injustice will be done.
The labor situation will not be effected except as it may be "improved" through the phenomenal birthrate of the Japanese and the fact that the prohibition of leasing as well as the owning of land
will make more of these aliens available for such work. As a matter of fact, the Japanese, except in the case of large land owners, are of little, if any service to the average farmer.

The World and Heaven.
The arguments put forward by certain pro-Japanese ministers and missionaries as to the fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man, though expressing the sincere belief of many of them, are but dreams of an impossible millennium. St. Luke truly says that "the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. Worldly matters of themselves not wrong
must be met in wise worldly fashion."

The "imperial race, of a world religion, a world language, a world
policy," that is to come from a mixture of white, brown, red, black and yellow peoples is a dream born of the brains of those carried away by religious fervor; impracticable and contrary, judged by the record of creation itself, to the purpose of the great Architect who made us of different colors, tongues, instincts and racial characteristics.

The cause of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man will never be advanced by trying to force
an unnatural, repugnant and impossible assimilation. Harmony comes from the understanding of unbridgeable differences and a consequent avoidance of intimate contact.

Can Never Blend.
"Where there is no vision, the people perish." The white and the brown are not assimilable. The two can never blend. The presence in numbers of either in the country of the other is pregnant with trouble.
It is not a question of superiority or inferiority; it is a question of fundamental difference that never can be bridged.

Developments have gone so far in California as to make the menace of the Japanese among us so distinct and emphatic that to overlook it, to fail, now, to resist it, would be criminal.

Booster Club Entertained
Braving the inclement weather last evening, about seventy-five members of the Fraternal Brotherhood lodge and their friends gathered in Woodman Hall to enjoy the hospitality of O. D. King, district manager of the lodge, and Mrs. King at the monthly Booster Club meeting.

A very well arranged program, consisting of a reading by Mrs. J. W. Johnson, vocal selection by Mrs. E. A. Biggs and a reading by James Ryan, brought forth hearty appreciation. Cards, dancing and friendly chats took up the remainder of the evening until midnight, when delicious refreshments were served at beautifully decorated tables.

The happy evening closed with expressions of pleasure in the evening's entertainment and appreciation of the delightful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. King.

Mrs. McGuire brings a message from the annual meeting of the Pacific branch, recently held in Berkeley, and her talk will therefore be very interesting. Music will be given by the ladies' quartet.

First Travelers Meet

Mrs. J. W. Bishop's pretty new bungalow home at 502 South Broadway was the scene yesterday afternoon of a delightful meeting of the First Ebell Travelers, fourteen members being present to enjoy Mrs. Bishop's hospitality. Despite the rainy weather, the section enjoyed the presence of Mrs. Henry Bristol, who comes from her home in Owensmouth to attend most every meeting. After spending an hour in reading, all went in automobiles to James' where dainty tables had been arranged for refreshments. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Bishop were Mrs. Henry R. Bristol, Wm. L. Tubbs, E. B. Smith, George S. Smith, Stephen Ross, M. F. Heathman, H. C. Dawes, John L. Dryer, J. P. Baumgartner, J. J. Roper, I. W. Van Cleave, C. S. Kendall, L. L. Shaw, and W. M. Smart. Mrs. L. J. Carden will be hostess at the next meeting.

St. Elizabeth Guild Dance

Odd Fellows Hall is being gaily adorned today with grinning pumpkins, cat-tails, and other Halloween decorations for the dance to be given there tonight under the auspices of St. Elizabeth's Guild of the Church of the Messiah. The affair is invitational and it is expected that there will be about seventy-five present. Chapman's orchestra will furnish the music.

Spurgeon P. T. A. Meeting

The Spurgeon School Parent Teacher's Association met recently at Spurgeon School with Mrs. Cood Adams, president of the Association presiding. The "Group of Songs" by the first grade and two "Folk Dances" by the second grade were much enjoyed and were a credit to Miss Hulsick, who drilled them.

Miss Maurie Hamill, kindergarten director, delighted the audience with a piano solo.

Rev. A. T. O'Rear spoke on the subject, "Books That Should Be in the Hands of the Parents." Every mother who heard Rev. O'Rear's address will agree that it is a subject that parents need to think and read about. The books suggested by him for the parents to read will be found in the Spurgeon school library. Parents are welcome to take them out at any time.

Mrs. S. M. Davis then spoke on the amendments to be voted upon at the November election. Mrs. Davis very clearly explained the three that women are most interested in—No. 2, The Prohibition Enforcement Act—No. 12, The Community Property Law, and No. 16, The Amendment for the equalization of taxes for the public schools.

Mrs. Chas. F. Mitchell in a few well chosen words presented Mrs. Cood Adams, who is beginning her second year as president of Spurgeon School P. T. A. with a beautiful bouquet of daisies as a token of the appreciation of the teachers of the splendid work Mrs. Adams has done and of the esteem in which she is held.

As there are so many new teachers at Spurgeon School, Mrs. Adams asked Miss Wagner, the principal, to introduce the teachers to the mothers. As each teacher was introduced, Francis McCarter and Eleanor Mitchell, in behalf of the mothers, presented each with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

The meeting adjourned for a social hour. The first and second grade mothers, Mrs. Elmer Preston, Mrs. S. Decker, Mrs. L. A. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Maud J. Lash, Mrs. Edwin Martin and Mrs. A. V. Herr, served hot chocolate and wafers to the sixty mothers present.

WOMEN TURN FROM COX IN STRAW VOTE

The women voters of the United States will not support Governor Cox and his League of Nations as strongly as it was expected early in the campaign, if the straw vote taken by the 5000 Rexall drug sears of the nation may be taken as a criterion. They are voting a little better than one and a half to one for Harding in the straw vote.

Ballots cast are being kept separate so that a check may be kept on the vote of the women. The returns up to Oct. 13, as sent out in a bulletin from Boston under that date credit Harding with receiving the votes of 124,214 women and Cox with having received 70,964, the voting by men, Harding has 344,276 and Cox 228,889.

SUPERVISORS FAVOR PSYCHOPATHIC WARD

Sheriff C. E. Jackson today appeared before the board of supervisors and requested that some action be taken to provide a special psychopathic ward at the county hospital where insane patients may be safely held, and where sick prisoners from the county jail can be placed without danger of their escaping.

Supervisor Schumacher, head of a committee to look into the matter, said he would bring before the board the plans which for some time had been under the committee's consideration. All the supervisors expressed themselves as favoring immediate action in regard to the construction of a building such as the one now proposed.

DEFENDANT WINNER ON IDENTITY CLAIM

"The decision in this case depends on whether the plaintiff is mistaken, or the defendant and his witness are lying. In lieu of further evidence which would prove conclusively the charge of lying, I am forced to hold that the matter is a mistake, and hereby order judgment for the defendant."

This was the opinion rendered today by Justice J. B. Cox in regard to the complaint of John Khoury and Isaac Matouk against R. Cerda, a Mexican.

Khoury claimed to have sold groceries to Cerda to the amount of $50.77 for which it was alleged Cerda had never paid. Cerda said he was not the man who had bought the groceries. The decision of Judge Cox substantiated his claim.

Khoury was represented by Attorney Morris A. Cain, and Cerda by Attorney Charles Swanner.

SUMMER CRUISE FOR FLEETS BEING FORMED

That plans already are being made for next summer's cruise by the Pacific and Atlantic fleets, is indicated in a dispatch received by Chief L. Pinkham, in charge of the local navy recruiting station, room 224 W. H. Spurgeon building.

Announcement is made that Secretary of the Navy Daniels has called upon the commanders of the two fleets to submit tentative itineraries for the foreign cruise to be made by the respective fleets during the summer of 1921.

The present plan is to have the Atlantic fleet visit ports on the east coast of South America, Cape Horn and other points, including passing the Island of St. Helena, the home of Napoleon during his captivity. The Pacific fleet is expected to visit the South Sea Islands and ports in Australia and New Zealand. It is fishing at Rice Lake.

HOLDS HEARINGS IN BANKRUPTCY

That the Sampson Tire and Rubber company, Los Angeles, one of four agencies alleged to have been given preference in settlement of their accounts with Charles A. Nicol, bankrupt, implement dealer of Garden Grove, would show that it had made a return of certain tires to William H. Moore, Jr., trustee of the Nicol estate, was expected when a hearing in the case began at 2 o'clock this afternoon before B. E. Tarver, referee in bankruptcy. According to an allegation by Moore, the four Los Angeles agencies concerned secured a settlement from Nicol after they were aware that Nicol was facing bankruptcy. Allegations brought before Tarver, to whom the Nicol bankruptcy matter was referred for adjudication, were that Nicol had bought from the agencies and that when pressed for settlement had replied that he could not pay, and that the agencies could come and get the goods bought from them. The agencies obtained the goods, it was stated.

The ground taken by Moore was that these creditors were given preference over other creditors and he sought to have turned over to him the goods in question, or their equivalent.

Tarver also was to have held a hearing here this afternoon in the contested settlement of the bankruptcy case of Ernest Froman, of Anaheim, in which the trustee had claimed that Mrs. Froman was holding an automobile and other personal property that should go into the estate for the benefit of Froman's creditors, whose claims total approximately $10,000. It was expected a compromise would be reported to Tarver for his acceptance.

JURORS RESUME BIG LEAGUE BALL PROBE

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The Cook county grand jury investigating baseball crookedness resumed sessions today with the announcement that three former major league baseball players probably would be added to the list of eight Chicago White Sox against whom indictments have been voted.

Fred Mitchell, manager of the Chicago Cubs, Charles Ebbets, owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers, and Harry Frazee, owner of the Boston Red Sox, were among witnesses expected to be heard today.

The grand jury has requested Abe Rothstein of New York and other gamblers to testify, but no word has been received from them.

The jury was expected to devote considerable time today to investigation of baseball gambling pools.

Additional subpoenas were issued today for three major league club owners. They were C. W. Grant, of the Boston Nationals; Barney Dreyfuss, of the Pirates; and Jacob Ruppert, of the Yankees.

The grand jury convenes at 2 p. m. and was scheduled to hear testimony from 22 witnesses. Replogle declared that a night session would be held.

WOMAN ON JURY OVER
PROTEST OF HUSBAND

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—Merely because her husband, Frank S. Hutton, prominent lawyer, objected to her serving on a jury, was not held to be sufficient reason for excusing Mrs. Hutton from jury duty, according to the ruling of Superior Judge Munroe.

After Hutton presented arguments to the court seeking to show "that as a matter of public policy a woman should stay in her home if her husband so desires it," Judge Munroe refused to grant the request.

"Mrs. Hutton has not asked to be excused, so I shall refuse your application," he ruled.

Roosevelt's Birthday
To Be Celebrated
Throughout Country

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—October 27, "Roosevelt Day," is to be observed throughout the United States, according to announcement made from the San Francisco headquarters of the Republican National Committee.

This is the anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt. The Republican National Committee has sent out a letter to every state chairman asking his attention to the date and requesting that a Republican meeting be held on that date in every county in the United States. It is proposed that prominent Republican speakers shall deliver an address on the anniversary in memory of Roosevelt, giving emphasis to the idea of "America First."

"It is to be 'All America' day or 'America First' day," according to Raymond Benjamin, California state chairman and assistant to the national chairman.

THIRD PRIZE IS GIVEN COUNTY

Third honors for county exhibits at the Southern California Fair at Riverside went to Orange county. The $500 award for the first prize was made to San Bernardino county. Featuring the grape industry, Fresno county was awarded second honors and $250 in cash.

For Junior exhibits, the first prize went to the Glenavon juniors of West Riverside, the second to Chaffey Union High school of Ontario and the third to the George Junior Republic of China.

Under the head of community horticultural exhibits, Hemet took first place, Beaumont second, and Banning, third.

Palo Verde won first prize and Coachella second for the best cotton exhibits.

Gov. William D. Stephens roused 4000 auditors to tumultuous applause at the fair when he asserted that the national administration instead of attempting to break up "certain farmers' co-operative marketing associations" would much better put forth its efforts in keeping down transcontinental freight rates on California's agricultural products.

The Governor, was accompanied by Samuel Shortridge, Republican Senatorial candidate.

Shortridge spoke briefly, keeping away from the partisan topics, Phil Swing, congressional candidate for the district, also was heard.

Senator James D. Phelan, visited the fair today, speaking in front of the grand stand at 2 o'clock. At noon he was a luncheon guest of County Democrats at the Mission Inn.

Today is the closing day of the fair which officers say has been seen by more persons than in any previous year. Up to Saturday night the attendance was considerably greater than for the entire fair last year. Sunday's crowd was estimated at 20,000 and yesterday's was nearly as large.

SHRINERS HAVE HIGH REGARD FOR COUNTY

George Fitch, of Los Angeles, recorder of Al Malaikah Temple, order of the Mystic Shrine, has written a letter to City Marshal Sam Jernigan, thanking him and his aides for the manner in which they took care of the arrangements of the big Shrine ceremonial held at Orange county park recently.

Stating that it has been the custom of the Temple in the past, following ceremonial sessions, to express appreciation of the efforts of those who assist the officers of Al Malaikah, Recorder Fitch wrote that he could not remember when he had been called upon to write a letter of thanks with so much real feeling as in the present case.

"In writing the ceremonial notice and in elaborating somewhat on the Moslem feast that was in store for us," Fitch wrote, "I did not realize that I was hitting the nail on the head; but enough cannot possibly be said of the wonderful feast that was prepared for the Nobles. They are not through talking about it yet."

"The Potentate would like to take each one of your committees by the hand and tell him how sincerely he appreciates his splendid efforts, and each one is entitled to a letter of thanks, but we are afraid that by this program someone might be overlooked and we are, therefore, sending it to your good self to see that this message of grateful appreciation reaches them all."

"If the Orange county boys will stand for the imposition, we should like to make this an annual event. The writer can truthfully say that in his twenty years' connection in Al Malaikah Temple he never attended a ceremonial session that surpassed this one, and this is the kind of comment that is heard on all sides."

"In behalf of the Potentate, officers and Nobles who were your guests on that occasion, let me say that we are very, very grateful for your splendid hospitality, and which never will be effaced from our memories."

JOCKEY SANDE RETURNS

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Earle Sande, one of the best known jockeys of the American track, has returned here from Canada, where he went to ride Sir Barton in his race against Man O' War. Owner Ross changed his mind at the last minute and replaced Sande, which caused him to leave the Ross family. He admitted here that he had several flattering contracts offered him, including one from S. C. Hildreth for $12,000 a year.

ALLEGED SLAVE CASE GIRL ADMITS THEFTS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—While Albert Cross, 24, motion picture actor, paced his cell in the county jail today awaiting trial for alleged violation of the Mann act, Myrtle Miles, 22, pretty young girl said by officers to have been taken from New York to Duluth, Minn., and later brought here, was facing a burglary charge in the city jail.

"I loved him," was the girl's plea as she admitted having stolen to secure money with which to get her sweetheart out of jail.

The white slave charge was brought against Cross by his wife, Mrs. Florence Hart. He will be arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Long on November 2.

"I loved him and I could never give him up," the "other girl" told the wife yesterday when they met in the juvenile bureau.

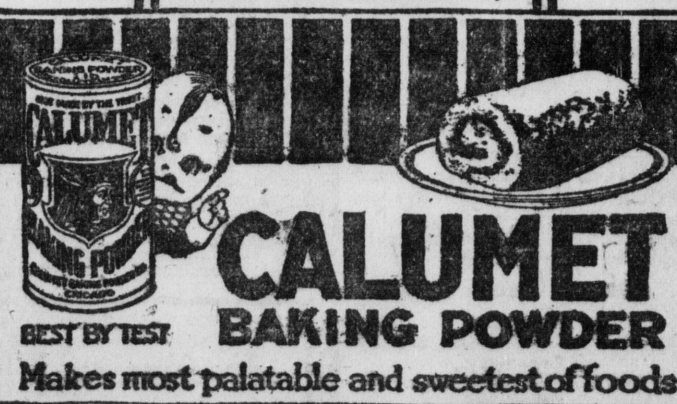

"I forgive you. But I am through with Albert," said Mrs. Cross.

SLUMP IN SUGAR PRICE PROVES SURPRISE TO REFINERS

Checks for August Deliveries Based on 12-Cent Quotation to Plants ADJUSTMENT HOPED FOR California Situation Better Than That In East for Beet Growers

That beet sugar refiners did not expect sugar prices to slump as they have in the past few weeks is clearly indicated by the fact that, in remitting for deliveries in August, checks were mailed to growers on the basis of 12 cent sugar—12 cents net to the refiners.

It is evident that those who were in close touch with the industry were in no better position to anticipate the market than were the growers or the public in general. It was regarded as certain that the net returns to refiners would be 12 cents.

The companies have found it necessary to readjust the accounts of the growers and have established the base price at 9 cents.

Statements just mailed to growers announce a revision of the base price. Checks were enclosed for those whose first payments on the 12 cent basis did not exceed the total under the 9 cent base price. In some instances statements show the individual grower indebted to the factories. The factory managers hope that the situation will adjust itself and that prices will reach a figure that will net 12 cents.

Full Year Price Basis.
The contracts with growers for this season were based on the average net selling price of sugar to refiners for the full year. Payment is provided for on the basis of what auditors determine as the average price, after careful investigation of selling accounts.

It is said that even should the returns to the refiners be no more than 9 cents net, the Southern California growers will yet have a far better contract than growers in the East. It is expected the average percentage of sugar content for beets grown in the southland will be between 16 and 17 per cent, which will mean an average of about $13.20 per ton at the 9 cent rate for all beets delivered at the factories named, due to the hot spell in August. The sugar content this year is about one per cent below normal, due to the hot spell in August.

At Eastern points it is understood that growers contracted to deliver their beets at from $10 to $12 per ton flat, with an increase of $1 per ton for every dollar above $9 net received by the refiners. In the East, as a result, there is no incentive to produce beets carrying large sugar contents as against those carrying the lower.

It is asserted that the local contracts are far more advantageous to the growers.

Production Cost Higher.
Growers have produced the present crop at extreme high cost. During various seasons between the planting and the harvesting, the producers have paid high wages, and paid them cheerfully, expecting to receive good returns—at least 12

PUBLIC LIBRARY PLANS TO HOLD RECEPTION

Tomorrow evening from 7 until 9, a public reception is to be given at the Santa Ana public library.

The purpose of this reception is to mark the completion of substantial improvements made at the library during the past six months.

Every resident of Santa Ana is invited to attend the reception. Particularly are those invited who have had no opportunity to inspect the changes that have been made in the structure.

This reception is to be given by the board of trustees of the library and by the library staff. Those comprising the board are Dr. C. D. Ball, president; Mrs. W. B. Tedford, secretary; J. S. Smart, Mrs. P. L. Toole and C. A. Robinson. The library staff is: Miss Jeannette McCadden, librarian; Miss Florence Stockbrand, Alberta Carter, Margaret May and Marion Davis.

Those who attend the reception without doubt will be very much pleased with the re-arrangement of the library. First thing to be noticed will be the fact that a new desk has been provided and that it faces the door.

A broad stairway into the basement has been moved to the reference library formerly in the south

11:50 a. m., Tustin, addresses.
12:30 p. m., Anaheim, luncheon.
1:30 p. m., Anaheim, addresses.

8:00 p. m., Santa Ana, Birch Park, addresses.

The itinerary of Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican nominee for United States senator, and of Gov. William D. Stephens, who is campaigning for the national ticket and for Shortridge, was announced today by A. E. Koepsel, chairman of the Republican county central committee.

Shortridge and Stephens will speak no less than half a dozen times in this county on Saturday. Republican committee plan to make the day the biggest rally day of the campaign.

On Friday, Shortridge and Stephens will speak in San Diego. According to plans made at Riverside yesterday, the Republican candidate and his party, which will include Mrs. Shortridge, Gov. Stephens and the governor's executive secretary, Martin Madsen, will leave San Diego at 8 a. m., Saturday.

All of the meetings are to be open air meetings. On the way north, the speakers will stop at San Juan Capistrano and Tustin. A delegation of Orange County Republicans in automobiles will meet them at San Juan Capistrano. It is proposed to have fifty or more automobiles in line for this reception.

Luncheon at Anaheim

The visitors will be escorted to Anaheim for luncheon, and during the afternoon three meetings will be held. They will be at Anaheim, Fullerton and Orange.

An early dinner is being planned. It is to be at Elks dining room at 6 o'clock. S. M. Reinhaus is the committeeman in charge of the dinner. Anyone desiring a reservation for this dinner should notify Reinhaus not later than Thursday evening.

The Governor and Shortridge will ride in the evening's parade. The parade is not going to be a plain affair. The committee, of which J. E. Liebig is chairman, held a meeting this morning and discussed plans for the parade. A lot of "secret stuff" is being arranged. Some surprises are to be sprung on the public. The committeemen declare that the parade will furnish a blaze of light and some features never before presented in a political parade in this county.

The parade is planned to start at 7:30 o'clock. It is to be divided into two divisions. The first division will be led by City Marshal Jernigan as grand marshal, and by the Santa Ana band. Men afoot will follow the band. In the second division will be decorated automobiles for women voters. The third division will be led by the Anaheim band and Republican clubs from over the county are to present whatever features they desire for this division.

NUMBER OF MISSING PEOPLE ON INCREASE

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Officials of the Missing Persons Bureau here are mystified by the large number of persons they have been asked to locate in the past month by relatives residing in all sections of the country.

The list which is increasing daily, shows that fully 550 persons are being sought here. Many of these are young women, who police believe, have been enticed from their homes or left the small cities for the greater opportunities which they believed existed here.

The bureau officials said they are confronted with a perplexing situation by requests to find persons who wandered from their homes while victims of amnesia. A dozen sailors who had written relatives that they had received their discharge papers and were leaving for home, have not been heard from again.

NECESSITY FOR PSYCHOPATHIC WARD CITED

County Hospital Quarters for Violently Insane Inadequate, Claim

With the recent escape of Lawrence Clanton from the prisoners' ward of the county hospital, and the near escape of J. D. German from the insanity ward, agitation has been begun anew for the construction of a separate psychopathic ward, where the violently insane may be confined in safety, and where prisoners who are sick may be confined in safety during their illness and recovery.

The proposed psychopathic ward would be a separate building, strongly built. It would be close to the other hospital buildings, and would much resemble them on the inside. The windows, however, would be barred, the walls strongly constructed of stone, and adequate locks and barred doors provided to prevent the escape of inmates.

The present ward consists of four rooms, two for prisoners and two for the violently insane. These are only makeshift. While the windows are barred, and steel doors have been fitted on outside of the wooden ones, the walls, nevertheless, are but the usual two by four, lath and plaster construction, and there are no adequate fittings to make even the steel doors really formidable barriers.

Clanton escaped by breaking a panel in the wooden door, and picking the padlock fastening the steel one. German was on the point of demolishing his ward and escaping when authorities from the sheriff's office were called in at 2 a. m. to take charge of him. The county hospital has not a force of attendants sufficient to stand guard over the prisoners—the only way that safety could be actually assured under present conditions.

Several years ago Bill Oliver, held for the murder of a fisherman at Seal Beach, and considered insane, kicked his way through the laths and plaster and escaped. He was recaptured and sent to Norwalk.

It is against state law to keep the insane in the county jail, and it is also against state law to keep any sick prisoner there after the county physician has recommended that he be sent to the hospital for treatment. Thus the most dangerous prisoners, in case of sickness may be confined in the county hospital, where the state has absolutely no adequate guarantee that they will not escape.

Concerning the situation, Dr. H. E. Zaiser said today: "When the county hospital was originally built no provision was made for an insane ward. We at present have two rooms in the basement, and two on the first floor, but these are only makeshifts."

"What we need at present is a genuine psychopathic ward, which would be a separate building, but perhaps connected by a passageway with the main building. This should contain about twelve cells, thus making provision for a long time to come."

Insane Numerous
"We have a great many insane who are sent here for observation, and many of these are very violent and destructive, raging around and tearing up the place as much as they can. Such cases are held on an average of 7 days, and we had 61 cases in the year of 1919. During the present year we are averaging about 100 per cent more cases than we did a year or two ago. These figures do not include the number of sick prisoners sent from the county jail."

"Furthermore, it is not right that insane patients be confined in the same building with patients who are merely physically ill. Frequently, the insane patients yell and howl and scream day and night, and as they are kept in the same building the sick patients are kept awake, and their nerves shattered. It is not fair to the sick, and not conducive to their speedy recovery. Yet under present conditions we can do nothing else."

"The matter of a psychopathic ward came up before the board of supervisors about two years ago, and was gone into thoroughly. It was laid over for a time for some reason or other. I am sure the supervisors are thoroughly in accord with the idea, and am sure they will do all they can to meet the situation which confronts us today."

Jackson Gives Views
Sheriff C. E. Jackson said: "There is certainly need for a psychopathic ward. The present makeshift does not insure safety. Several prisoners and several insane have escaped from the county hospital during the past year through one's fault—inadequate protection was to blame. The present cells are only makeshift, and to confine a desperate criminal in one

Pome Tells Of Hoss Car Speed

There was a time when a street car line was operated between Santa Ana and Tustin. Newcomers do not know this. Old timers have almost forgotten it. The cars were drawn by horses and mules.

In the long ago, too, there was a newspaper man in this city whose capabilities at wielding a witty pen were envied by all. The better one knew him the better he could appreciate his wit. This man was Dan Baker, editor of the Standard and later one of the founders of what is now the Bulletin.

In his publication, along in 1887, Baker told of a ride he took to Tustin on the street car. Here is the description given The Register by E. G. Huntington, who has just resurrected it from among some of his early day papers:

THIS HAS NO MORAL

'Twas on the charming Tustin line one glorious summer day, I sat upon a street car deck and whiffed my cares away. The day was rare—a day in June, most peaceful and most fair. The mule snored like a big basson—the driver snored the air. A cow had walked quite swiftly by and left us far behind, but still the mule snored sweetly on and didn't seem to mind. At half-past one we crossed Third street, at half-past two we reached First; and still the mule snored sweetly on as though its throat would burst. Two ladies left the car anon and pointed was their talk; they said that life was somewhat brief so they guessed they would walk. But still the mule snored the old tune, the driver snored the air, while I sat on the street car deck and whiffed away my care. But I am growing very old; gray hairs are coming in. I may not waste the precious days, to do so were a sin. So now, when I to Tustin go, I almost always walk; for life is short and mules are slow—you hear my gentle talk.

SLUMP IN WOOL MINOR CLOTHES COST FACTOR

Despite the fact that raw wool has decreased approximately fifty per cent in price, there will be no noticeable reduction in the price of clothing between now and next spring.

This is the consensus of opinion among Santa Ana clothing dealers, who back up their opinion with the facts recently brought out in a nationwide survey of the situation made by the National Association of Retail Clothiers, which met at Chicago.

"The price of crude wool has very little to do with the cost of a suit to a customer," said one retailer. "This is because the original price of raw wool is but a very small factor in the price of the delivered ready-to-wear garment. The principal cost is that of labor, and thus far there has been no wage reductions. While it is felt certain that the slackening in the clothing trade is bound to bring lower wages before long, this will not affect clothing prices for many months."

The situation is analogous to that of a tree. You can buy a tree for a small sum. However, by the time the tree is cut, milled, and marketed and delivered, and put into a house, the principal cost is not that of the original wood, but of the labor which has gone into shaping it, handling it, and delivering it. The original price of the tree won't make any appreciable difference to the customer in the price of the wood delivered to and put into his new building."

Retailers in general feel that the peak of their prices has been reached. The boom days of the great woolen mills are over—the days when they forced the retailer to order months ahead at whatever price they chose to set at the time of delivery. The boom was ended by the big sale scare last summer, the general unloading of stocks, and the cancellation of orders. Retailers are "playing close to the belt" in their orders at present.

While many people think that the recent reduction in the cost of clothing has led to wholesale prices dropping, they are mistaken. Wholesale prices have gone down, but little. At present, clothing retailers are selling at less profit than ever before, while paying practically the same prices for their goods. They are doing this in the hope that wholesale prices will gradually drop and allow them to make a margin of profit.

"We are not making a cent on our men's clothing," states one retailer today. "This does not mean that we are selling below wholesale

COUNTY TO ACT WITH CITY IN MOVE TO CUT EXPENSE OF HAULING

Slabaugh Tells Council of 220 Per Cent Increase in Railway Rates
NAMES COMMITTEE

Discrimination Alleged in Schedules Obtaining in North and South

Stating that freight rates on road building material had advanced 220 per cent since he assumed the office of purchasing agent; that he is negotiating with railroad officials for an adjustment and intimating that he probably would be granted concessions for the county, F. W. Slabaugh appeared before the city council last night and asked if that body had given the subject of rates any consideration or taken action.

He said he thought that if the county were successful in securing a reduced rate such rate should be made commercial rather than exclusively for the county. He wanted the opinion of the board as to what rate should be asked for.

The council has taken no action in the matter of reduced rates because it does supply these materials to contractors. The county does, J. W. Tubbs and Charles H. Chapman were appointed a committee to cooperate with Slabaugh in rate adjustment negotiations.

"I have filed a protest against the rates for Orange county and if the council has been considering the matter of a protest, we might get together," said Slabaugh.

"I have seen the rate on rock advance from 25 cents to 80 cents per hundred pounds since taking the office of purchasing agent," Slabaugh continued. "This is an increase of 220 per cent. It is unreasonable. The cost of rock has advanced only 35 per cent. Other counties of Southern California have also filed protests against the present rates."

Meet Freight Agents

"We met freight agents of the companies recently. We had an all-day session with them. I believe that we convinced the agents that the charges are exorbitant. I feel that we will get an adjustment. In fact, the negotiations have gotten to the point where the agents have asked us what we want."

"It is a question of the rate we want, and whether it should be a concession to the county, or a concession to both the county and municipality, or whether it should be made commercial. I believe it should be commercial."

"We are willing to concede that the original rate of 25 cents would be too low under present conditions. However, the railroads certainly are not entitled to an advance of 220 per cent. We presented to the agents the matter of discrimination in rates favoring Northern California as against Southern California. We pay a minimum of 80 cents on rock where the North pays 60 cents. I do not see this. The representatives also claimed that freight could be handled in the San Joaquin Valley more cheaply than in the South. In the North the company can handle one hundred cars as cheaply as it can fifty in the South, the agents claim. This possibly is true."

"If we fail to get an adjustment I will take the matter all the way through to the railroad commission. We must make answer as to what we want by November 1. An advance that comes to the county should accrue also to the city, and for the

BILL, No. 5

WHY I SHOULD VOTE "YES" ON THE CHIROPRACTIC BILL

Four years ago the 13th of this month a certain girl baby was born in Pasa, Calif. When the child was two weeks old, the doctor (can give you name if you wish it) said to its mother, "your disease—consumption." The child thrived, but breathed so loud when laid on her back you could hear her all over the house. At nine months of age she was put in a Los Angeles baby show of five hundred babies. Eight babies were picked out as possible winners. She was one of the eight. She lost out because she was too heavy, but her photo appeared in a newspaper. The judges were the mayor of the city of Los Angeles and the head doctor at city or county hospital. At 14 months old she contracted pneumonia of the lungs. The same doctor was called. He said, "I told you so; she can't live; don't try to do anything for her; let her die quietly." I said, "Never say die until a chiropractic doctor gives her up." We called one, Dr. Lichty. The child was up playing in 10 days. She never breathed hard any more. We asked the doctor why the child's spine was twisted at birth, and when the chiropractor adjusted same, she breathed natural. Today she is the picture of health—strong and vigorous. One more reason why I will vote "Yes" on No. 5 bill. If you need any more proof on this case I will be glad to furnish same. I am a registered voter of this town.

The factories so far have disposed of a very small portion of this year's production, according to a statement mailed to the growers. There is possibility that the market will react and that before the entire output is disposed of a portion of it will sell for a figure that will make it possible for the factories to pay close to 12 cents. The future alone can determine that feature.

The situation as regards price and the necessity for the factory adjusting accounts of growers to the 9 cent basis, is set forth by the factories in the following communication to growers:

"When the first beets were harvested, raw sugar was $16.50, New York, and granulated was between 21 and 22c. New York or San Francisco. When the time arrived for estimating the basis for making beet checks to cover August deliveries, raws had dropped to 10 3/4c, at which point it was then hoped the market would stabilize, and granulated was 17c, though at the time checks were placed in the mails it had declined to 15c. While the price of raws made it apparent that granulated had not reached bottom, we had strong hopes that it would not drop below 12c, and our beet statements and checks were based on that estimated figure.

Cites Disappointment.

"Unfortunately, we were doomed to disappointment, as the price has already dropped below 12c basis, and raws are but 7 1/2c. The most unfortunate phase of this situation is that up to this time (October 12th) we have been able to dispose of less than five per cent of the sugar produced to date, and less than four per cent of our probable production for the season. Consequently the average received for this small quantity disposed of will only slightly affect the average to be received for the balance of the crop remaining to be sold. Therefore, unless the price turns and advances sharply, it will readily be seen that the basis of calculations heretofore used is considerably higher than we will realize from sale of the sugar, in view of which it is necessary for us to reach our beet accounts from the beginning of harvest to October 1st to the basis of 9c sugar, which we are doing as per statement enclosed herewith.

"Since under our beet contract both the grower and the company participated in the returns from sugar sales according to the price received, it is unnecessary for us to express the keen regret we feel because of our mutual disappointment. However, the difficulties being experienced are not peculiar to beet sugar, as practically all other commodities now occupy very similar positions, i. e., large stocks, dull markets and declining prices. Sugar, having declined so sharply, may not, from now on, be affected by general conditions to the same extent as other commodities. It may be that the market will react to some extent, but, all guesses having been wrong so far, it is impossible to foretell what the developments will be."

Promiscuous Camping Hit

R. L. Bisby, manager of the W. H. Spurgeon Realty company, asked the council whether or not he should permit campers to occupy the Spurgeon block between Second and First and Sycamore and Broadway.

"I am asked nearly every day for permission to use the ground as a camping site," said Bisby. "I am willing to give the free use of the ground, but I have denied the privilege in the belief that the city council would not approve such action. There are no sanitary accommodations."

Members of the council discussing the subject expressed the belief that it would be dangerous to the health of the community to permit camping on this or other vacant property where there are no sanitary features, and by vote of the council Bisby was directed to send future inquiries to the public camp grounds.

Gilmaker Alley Settled

Special Attorney Clyde Bishop reported he had obtained a definite proposition from Joseph Gilmaker with reference to opening the alley running from Broadway to Birch, between Third and Fourth streets.

The proposition is that Gilmaker will give the right of way and his proportion of the costs of paving the alley. Gilmaker is to be permitted to maintain a stairway alongside of a new addition being built on the west side of his property and to erect a fence along the alley. Bishop recommended that the proposition be accepted and the recommendation was acted upon officially.

cost, but we are nevertheless selling goods at such prices that there is no profit in it on the money invested. We hope, however, that the wholesale prices will drop slightly so as to allow us a margin of profit. We do not intend to raise our prices. Our present prices will continue until next spring, when the new summer lines will come in.

Next spring there may be some reduction, especially if labor costs have gone down. But there will be no marked change at present. The prices set by the sales last summer are being approximately maintained on the present market. One thing that has brought about the slightly lower costs is that there has been more care in the selection of goods. The day of the $100 suit is over. These fancy lines are dead. People are using more sense in buying.

All dealers, however, are agreed on one thing—that the price of raw wool will not materially alter the retail price situation. Only about three pounds of wool is used in the average man's suit. Even a great reduction in raw wool could only mean a reduction of the suit a dollar or so. Similarly, railway freight costs do not cut any big figure. It costs about 65c to bring a suit here from the East by express. The main item is labor cost, and the possible reduction of suits next spring hinges on this one item.

of them, even though he be sick, is almost laughable. Everyone who has had to do with the situation is, I am sure, more than anxious to see action taken in the matter.

"Very frequently at all hours of the day and night the county office is forced to call upon us to send down deputies to guard insane cases who are violent and tearing up the place, and who it is feared will escape. The situation is unsafe."

Deputy Sheriff Lacy, who has charge of the county jail, said: "Insane cases cannot be kept in the jail. That is a state law. Nor would the people of Orange county want to see those who had committed no crime, but are wards of the state through no fault of their own, confined in the jail. On the other hand there is no adequate provision at the county hospital for them, and the insane person there to which I am sure Dr. Zaiser will agree. And every time I send a sick prisoner down there, it is a fifty-fifty chance whether I will get him back, or whether he will escape."

Dizziness Causes Fall—Head Injured

"A year ago my stomach bloated so badly with gas that I fell unconscious and cut my head badly on corner of door. I had suffered from stomach trouble for several years and no medicine helped me to speak of. A druggist patched up my head and advised me to use May's Wonderful Remedy for my stomach trouble. The results have been really wonderful. I have never had any sign of my former symptom since. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Druggists everywhere.—Adv.

PASTOR SCORES ANTI-JAP MOVE

"Shall We Christianize Jonah and Send Him to Japan?" was the topic of a sermon by Rev. John Oliver at the First Methodist church last night giving special attention to the Japanese question now under discussion in this state.

The text was taken from Acts 17:26, which reads "And God hath made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed and the bounds of their habitation."

In opening his sermon, Rev. Oliver stated that as pastor of the Methodist church he had no right to discuss partisan politics in the pulpit, but that he had the right, and in fact was expected to speak on all moral issues, but only as they affected the life and purpose of the Kingdom of God in the production of a Christian civilization.

Rev. Oliver said in part: "It is the business of the church socially to make an atmosphere in which problems of the community, the nation, and the world may receive brotherly consideration. Nothing can be settled right in an atmosphere of hate. No problem can be treated in a Christian manner till prejudice is banished and love has taken the place of hatred."

"Just the other day I received the following Christian appeal from the eight pastors of the Japanese churches around the bay of San Francisco: 'Japan has always regarded America as a Christian nation, and our people cannot understand the present unfriendly feeling which seems contrary to the spirit and teachings of Jesus. We are trying to preach the Fatherhood of God, and brotherhood of the human family, but we find it very difficult when even the followers of Christ in some instances manifest an unbrotherly attitude toward us. We are endeavoring to win the people by telling them that the best Americans are not in sympathy with the Japanese agitation.'"

Says Peace Threatened
"Let me say that I believe in the 'gentlemen's agreement,' which the Japanese Government has kept, as I will show and I believe in the exclusion of 'picture brides' which Japan has stopped because of our protest. I believe that God set this great country as a home for European and American born people, and not for Orientals, but I do not believe that the present agitation is either Christian or American. Any discerning student must realize that the peace of the world for all future time is threatened by this unholy discussion brought about by political junkies and some hoodlum elements of the Pacific Coast."

"What does the Anti-Oriental legislation mean? First, it means the cancellation of the 'gentlemen's agreement' which Japan has kept. Second, exclusion of the 'picture brides,' which Japan has already stopped. Third, they propose an amendment to the federal constitution, providing that no child born of foreign parents shall be considered an American citizen, unless both parents are of a race eligible to citizenship. We protest not the proposed amendment but the method of obtaining it."

"Japan has kept her 'gentlemen's agreement' with our government made in 1907. The United States Commissioner of Immigration, in his report for 1919, page 57, states that the exclusion of arrivals over departures of Japanese immigrants and non-immigrants, to the continental United States, and Hawaii, is only 18,849 for the past eleven years, the working period of the 'gentlemen's agreement.' The three millions of people in this state are supposed to be terribly scared by the increase of 18,849 Japanese in eleven years."

Cites Figures
"Take the land question which looms so large in the minds of some of the anti-Japanese folks. The report of the Board of Control as quoted by Dr. H. B. Johnson says: 'The Japanese own 74,769 acres of land in this state and they control by contract and lease some 383,287 acres more.' This amount of land out of the 29,000,000 acres in the state is worked by Japanese to produce food for the American people. More than three million people are expected to have economic fits because 24,506 Japanese control this much land."

"It looks very much like this question has been stretched for political purposes. Senator Phelan's public record is full of opposition to much falsehood on this question. Colonel John P. Irish has published 'Facts Versus Falsehoods of Senator Phelan and Others.' Senator Phelan began his program by publishing a report that an American company had sold to the Japanese 800,000 acres of land on the Mexican side of the Imperial Valley. The American company at once proved this to be without basis."

"Senator Harding's great word in this campaign is 'understanding.' Better understanding between the nations, better understanding between conflicting groups. We need this principle applied to this problem. Certainly the people of this state are not going to turn back to the Old Testament and live on the principle of 'an eye for an eye.' 'The problem for Japan is a daily problem of bread and butter. Japan has 57,000,000 people on a group of islands not as large as the state of California and only seventeen per cent of its land is arable. Her population is increasing at the rate of over 600,000 annually. With the most intensive cultivation possible Japan cannot sustain itself. We say Japan must stay out of California. We say it must stay out of China, that the Chinese have population enough. But must Japan stay out of Siberia, whose great plateaus and valleys are waiting for an industrious people to add to the world's food supply?"

Rev. Oliver discussed briefly some other amendments, but gave the bulk of his address to the consideration of the Japanese question.

Letter Gives Reasons Why Women Should Give Votes to Harding

"Why Women Should Vote the Republican Ticket" is the subject of a circular letter sent to 500 women in Orange County by the Republican County Central Committee.

The letter was prepared by Mrs. A. J. Lawton. It carries with it an appeal to each woman to whom it is sent to spread the information given in the letter to at least ten other women.

The letter in full follows:
WHY WOMEN SHOULD VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET
Woman Suffrage

"The Woman's Suffrage Amendment became an acute national issue in 1914. It was smothered by two Democratic Congresses. When a Republican Congress came to power, it passed the Amendment inside of two weeks. Of the 36 states to ratify, 29 were Republican, 7 Democratic. Carrie Chapman says: 'Women owe a debt of gratitude to the Republican party.'"

Extracts from a speech made by Senator Harding on October 1st at his home in Marion, Ohio, to 3000 women who came from all parts of the country to hear the Republican nominee personally express his views on subjects which concern the women voters.

Women Workers
Referring to the women workers of America, Senator Harding said, 'We no longer are speaking of a small group.' Twelve million women in the United States, 48 per cent of them between 15 and 20 years of age, are engaged in paid occupations or professions. 'Such an army of potential maternity demands from America careful and adequate protection in the conditions which surround their labors.' Live Words on Live Issues.

Republican candidate's opinions upon the questions YOUR vote will decide follow:

Education—Does not every man have a right to an education? Calvin Coolidge: 'Ample opportunity for education at public expense (is) the mark of an advancing American civilization'

Work and Wages—You want—don't you?—high wages for the worker and good work for him or her? Warren G. Harding: 'I wish the higher wage to abide the one explicit condition that the wage earner will give full return for the wage received.'

The Protective Tariff
The Republicans' maintenance of the Protective Tariff has protected the American workers, women as well as men, from the competition of foreign cheap labor. That it has made their lot better than that of labor in any other land. Don't you want that to continue?

Warren G. Harding: 'I believe in the protective tariff.'

Employer and Employee
Do you believe that Labor and Capital ought to be brought back to a friendly relationship?

Warren G. Harding: 'I want the employers of industry to understand the aspirations, the yearnings of the millions of American wage-earners, and I want the wage-earners to understand the problems, the anxieties, the obligations of the management of capital.' Calvin Coolidge: 'There must be a different public attitude toward industry, a larger comprehension of the interdependence of Capital, Management and Labor, and better facilities for the prompt and reasonable adjustment of industrial disputes.'

Exit Prophets for Profit
Do you want to see an end to profiteering?

Warren G. Harding: 'In all sincerity we (the Republican Party) promise the prevention of unreasonable profits; we challenge profiteering with all the moral force and the legal powers of government and people.'

Calvin Coolidge: 'Profiteering should be punished.'

Lower Taxes
Aren't you tired of the sort of taxes that the Democratic Administration put upon you?

Warren G. Harding: 'I believe the tax burdens imposed for the war emergency must be revised to the needs of peace and in the interest of equity in distribution.'

Calvin Coolidge: 'The extravagant standards bred of recent years must be eliminated. This should show immediately in reduced taxation.'

Waste at Washington
Are you tired of governmental extravagance? Do you want governmental economy?

Warren G. Harding: 'We (the Republican Party) promise that relief which will be the result of the war emergency must be revised to the needs of peace and in the interest of equity in distribution.'

Calvin Coolidge: 'The extravagant standards bred of recent years must be eliminated. This should show immediately in reduced taxation.'

The Farmer's Rights
Wouldn't you like to see fair treatment for the farmer?

Warren G. Harding: 'Let us facilitate co-operation to insure against the risks attending agriculture, which the urban world so little understands, and a like co-operation to market their products as directly as possible with the consumer, in the interests of all.'

Calvin Coolidge: 'Agriculture is entitled to be suitably rewarded and on its encouragement and success will depend the production of a food supply large enough to meet the public need at a reasonable cost.'

The above information has been compiled for you by Mrs. A. J. Lawton, member of the Orange County Republican Central Committee, at the request of the Committee. Your vote is needed in support of the policies of the Republican party above mentioned. Will you be responsible for giving out this information to at least ten (make it twenty, if possible) women in your voting precinct? Urge these women to go to the polls on November 2nd. We want Orange County to make a record at the coming election in upholding the American Constitution and the principles for which it stands.

Yours for Republican Success,
ORANGE COUNTY REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

INDIA PRINCESS IS FAVORITE IN LONDON

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Princess Tikka of Kapurthala, member of one of the most valorous of the ancient Sikh families in the Punjab district of India, is giving London society fresh insights into the manners and bearing of high-caste Indian women.

Her face is distinguished by features of aristocratic breeding; her costumes and ornaments are marked by elegant simplicity; her personality is unaffected and charming; and her use of English is as choice as if it had been cultivated in the best schools of England. She has proved a decided acquisition in the social activities of the summer, and naturally she is in great demand.

She is the wife of the son and heir of Sir Jagjit Singh, present titular ruler of Kapurthala. Before her marriage she was Princess Brinda of Tubal, daughter of the Rajah of that district. She was educated in Paris and often visited England, where many of her old friends are now welcoming her. Her husband, the Prince, rendered valuable services to England during the late war. He has travelled widely and is keenly interested in art and education.

His ancestor, Jassa Singh, made himself the leading Sikh of his day by his intelligence and bravery, and he gained extensive possessions, some of which were forfeited in the first Sikh war. The loyalty of Rajah Randhir Singh in the mutiny of 1857, in which he led a contingent to Oudh, and did good service, restored the former lands to the family, but he retained only the title of Rajah, with the status of a large landholder.

The present head of the family is Sir Jagjit Singh, born in 1872, and succeeding his father in 1877, and coming into full authority in 1890.

ENGLISHMAN PRODUCES NEW FORM OF ORCHID

LONDON, Oct. 19.—An English grower named Armstrong is proudly enjoying the credit of having produced a new form of orchid which is declared to be the only bloom of its kind in the world. It is of the cypripedium species and is apparently a hybrid offshoot of other varieties of orchid grown in the same conservatory, the process having been abetted by the grower's skill. He believes he can reproduce and perpetuate the new variety endlessly.

Mr. Armstrong rears flowers for the pleasure of it rather than commercially. He is one of the many English lovers of rare growths in plants, whose fancy has turned to orchids and whose experiments with them have proved a valuable, pastime. Since glass houses became cheap and modern methods of heating suitable for orchid cultivation, the flower has been grown in many private houses and the display in the chief floral exhibitions in London and the provinces has become largely of non-professional origin.

Mr. Armstrong has named his new specimen the "Forence Spencer." He values it at $2,000. The orchid is a hybrid bloom in which it was grown have an estimated collective value of $3,000.

CANADIAN SOLDIER SETTLERS THRIVING

EDMONTON, Alta., Oct. 19.—More money has been loaned to soldier settlers in northern Alberta than in any other part of Canada. Albertans point to this fact as a tribute to the attractions of the soil and climate of the province. Through the Edmonton office which covers the northern half of the province, loans to soldier settlers have been approved to the extent of $14,000,000 and of this amount nearly $10,000,000 has been disbursed. About 3,200 soldiers have been actually located on farms with an equal number settled on homestead lands for which no loans are necessary.

Most of the soldier settlers are making good, according to the Soldier Settlement Board, and are sharing in the profits of the bumper harvest.

PLAN TO AID GROWERS

BRAVLEY, Oct. 19.—C. J. Sheppard, director of the Twelfth District Federal Reserve Bank, is in Bravley in conference with bankers and business men. This evening at the Dunlack Hotel the Imperial Valley bankers will meet with Mr. Sheppard, the purpose of the meeting being to devise plans for the relief of cotton growers by loans on cotton to cover the cost of picking and incidentals at this time. The idea is to lend up to 8 cents a pound on short staple.

Release for Women who Suffer

The multitude of American women who suffer terribly day after day and year after year from ills peculiar to their sex is almost beyond belief, yet there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman, and often many, do not reside who have been restored to health from some of the worst forms of female ills, and often avoided operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

These Two Women Tell of Their Experience.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound."—LILLIAN THARP, 824 South 6th Street, Carrollton, Ky.

Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die, and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my housework, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and can do my own housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good for female weakness as can Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis.

BIG CAR DOWNED BY FORD; A. E. YORBA HURT

FULLERTON, Oct. 19.—A. E. Yorba, well known rancher who lives a mile and a half north-west of Placentia, was driving along peacefully, bringing a load of walnut pickers to his ranch. He was driving a Hudson and everything seemed serene and calm.

Then along came one of those cars you always laugh at. The driver was driving by an oil man who was in a hurry to get to work.

The Ford side-swiped the big car and the big car went down for the count. Mr. Yorba had one arm badly bruised and two Mexicans had ribs broken. Dr. Cowles supplied first aid to the men but the automobiles will need further attention.

PURCHASE GROUND FOR CITRUS PLANT

LA HABRA, Oct. 19.—In preparation for the erection of a modern orange packing house, which will be a much desired addition to its present plant, the La Habra Citrus Association has purchased two acres of ground east of the present house from the Pacific Electric, on which the new structure will be built.

At a special meeting of the stockholders the capital stock of the corporation was increased from $90,000 to $210,000 for the purpose of providing funds to build the addition. Plans for the building have not been completed as yet, but it is the intention to erect it in every respect and to equip it with the latest and most improved machinery.

In order to determine on the best type of house and equipment the directors have made trips to various packing houses recently built in other sections and the ideas found acceptable will be incorporated in the new building.

PROSPECTS OF FIRST CONCERT PLEASING

Music lovers of this city are particularly enthusiastic over the three artists chosen for the opening concert of the Santa Ana Music Association to be held Tuesday evening, October 26, in the First Methodist church, and it is expected that the attendance will therefore be very large.

Miss Blanche Ruby, soprano, who recently returned from Paris, will have an important place on the program. Miss Ruby is visiting her parents in Los Angeles and is appearing in many musical events while in the southland.

Earl Bright, cellist, is conceded to be an artist of high quality and has been a member of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra.

It is not necessary to introduce Alfred Kastner, harpist, to those of this city, as he has appeared here in the past and has delighted all who have heard him. Mr. Kastner is solo harpist of the Philharmonic orchestra of Los Angeles, having been secured from New York's Symphony orchestra.

AMERICAN PLACARDS WORRY DUTCH GUEST

BUTTE, MONT., Oct. 19.—It is not likely that friends back home of a certain Dutch engineer, a member of Holland's recent royal commission to study water power in the northwest, will flock to Butte to make their homes.

For, if said engineer told them his impressions of the city, received while driving over it in an automobile tour, they will believe Butte is infested with contagion. And all because his knowledge of English was hazy.

During the trip the party passed a "measles" sign. When the Dutchman asked what it was, the host explained it indicated there was a case of contagious measles in that house. At other times during the tour other placards were pointed out.

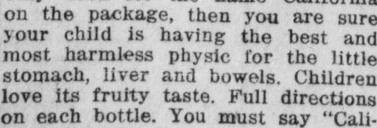

"What do you think of Butte?" asked one of the party on return to the hotel.

"Terribly unhealthy," he ejaculated in equivalent Dutch. "I never saw so much disease. Seems as if the whole town was infested with measles and For Rent."

NEW MACHINE MAKES SHIP COALING EASY

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Foreign ocean-going vessels are taking advantage of the automatic coal loading machine which has been installed at the Greenwich Point piers here. The system is borrowed from the plant in use on the Great Lakes, where iron ore is handled and shipped quickly and cheaply. By this method of coaling an ordinary sea-going craft can be coaled in less than half an hour, where it formerly took several days.

Four dumper trucks, forming a network and capable of holding 1,000 cars of coal, are built around the machine. The cars, specially constructed, wait on the siding until a vessel is ready to coal. Each car passes through a concrete, steam-driven, rotating shed which is used for thawing coal in winter. Released from the thawing shed, the cars glide down a slight incline and up another where they are clamped.

Smelting an elevator, automatically to the rail cars, hoists the coal, placing itself into a position of an acute angle. The coal is permitted to run from the car, onto the platform and into a V-shaped bowl which connects it with a chute from the hold of the ship.

The dumper was built at a cost of approximately $500,000 and is the only one in this section of the United States. Foreign vessels alone spend $1,000,000 monthly for coaling supplies here. Last month 306,700 tons of coal was loaded on ocean-going craft.

CLEVELAND PLANNING FOR BIRTHDAY PARTY

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 19.—Cleveland is airing the mothsball fumes out of the municipal tinsel, flags, pennants and banners and scrubbing up in preparation for the celebration of its 125th anniversary. Mayor W. S. Fitzgerald ordered an early start for the event and selected a committee of 50 representative citizens to supervise the work. The 125th birthday falls on July 22, 1921.

It is hoped to dedicate on that day the great auditorium, now under construction. The auditorium will be the largest in the country, the architects said. It will have seating room for 15,000 people. The cost will be $4,000,000.

The architects said it will seat three times as many persons as the New York Hippodrome and be much larger than Madison Square Garden. An immense stage is included in the plans. Part of it will be constructed on an elevator so that it may be raised or lowered in connection with the use of a swimming tank and ice skating rink. The basement will be large enough to accommodate a three-ring circus. Conventions requiring up to 100,000 square feet of space can be accommodated, the builders said. An organ to cost $100,000 has been contracted for.

INDUSTRIAL COMPANY HAS ORANGE OFFICE

ORANGE, Oct. 19.—The Orange Industrial Corporation has opened a temporary office in the E. G. Stinson building in the southwest corner of the Plaza Square. Mrs. A. A. Smith, formerly of the Orange County Fumigation company, is in charge.

The Orange Industrial Corporation, which recently launched a building program and opened up a new sub-division, Maplewood Tract, has met with considerable success and its members are enthusiastic over plans projected.

TEACHERS GUESTS OF BREA PEOPLE

BREA, Oct. 19.—The Brea Parent-Teachers Association jumped into new time vigor with a program and reception to the teachers that eclipsed anything previously attempted. Frequently a reception to teachers is so formal as to be a near-frost or suggestive of cold storage—but not the Brea product. Our teachers awoke to the realization that a community had broken loose for a good time and a normal informal expression of talented entertaining.

Harvey announced the numbers while fifty performers put on the show.

The program started with a Chopin masterpiece on the piano, by Edith Spicer, vocal solo by Kathrine Kearns, a vocal solo by Mrs. J. E. Reynolds, with violin obligato by Mrs. John Nichols.

Mrs. George Middleton, president of the P. T. A. then started the stage presentation of certain months of the year, leaving the audience to guess which was portrayed. In a setting for May-Day she introduced the fifteen teachers, giving each a bouquet, not forgetting a bouquet-joke for principal Fanning.

Mrs. M. E. Anderson in a Valentine setting, represented February. A Goddess of Liberty, with Uncle Sam and drum corps, and Revolutionary Sons and Daughters, represented July.

Governor Cox and Senator Harding put forth an impassioned appeal for the votes of the teachers; for November.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS MAY CONSOLIDATE

HANSEN STATION, Oct. 19.—Notes have been posted for an election on October 23 on the question of consolidating the schools of the Magnolia, Savannah, Cypress and Centralia districts. Many of the residents of these districts foresee greater convenience, better equipment, adequate buildings, more capable teachers and better pupils as the result of such a consolidation that could not be obtained in the smaller schools. It is expected that a great deal of interest will be shown in the election.

COLORADO STARTS ON ROAD WORK CAMPAIGN

DENVER, COLO., Oct. 19.—Bids for the construction of seven federal roads, the estimated cost to be more than $250,000, were opened by the state highway commission here last week.

The first project provides for improvements on the Burlington highway in Yuma county that will cost about $25,000.

Improvement of the old Florence-Cripple Creek railroad grade, widening and construction of wagon decks on the railway bridges, is included in the second project at an estimated cost of $50,000.

Four miles of highway to be constructed in Montrose county will cost approximately $50,000. Other road work for smaller sums will take up the balance of the amount.
